

N1 () - What information do you typically collect in order to make a determination of whether your client or organization can legally incorporate another entity's software into your client or organization's own product?

